

We are looking to recruit a full time qualified teacher for our wonderful one form entry primary school. This is a unique opportunity to join our professional team. The desired candidate must be passionate about children's learning and development, have excellent communication skills and will share our passion for providing excellent teaching and a creative curriculum.

Malden Parochial is a thriving community where we are daily "Reflecting the Kingdom of God by Enriching and Transforming Lives". We are incredibly proud of our recent SIAMS inspection in October 2025, which found that our school is successfully "enabling pupils and adults to flourish" through a deeply Christian vision that is "visibly transforming the lives of both pupils and adults".

When you join us, you will immediately feel the unique atmosphere of a school where our Christian values of Love, Wisdom, Joy, and Peace truly shape every aspect of daily life.

We offer:

- A friendly and supportive staff team where every member of staff is valued and has the opportunity to excel within their role.
- Our leaders and governors are deeply committed to nurturing staff wellbeing and personal growth, and our team overwhelmingly reports feeling "loved, listened to and appreciated".
- To support your professional journey, we provide high-quality professional development and prioritise your work/life balance, providing additional time out of class for planning and leadership responsibilities, alongside thoughtfully arranged meetings.
- Our supportive staff community collaborates effectively and achieves the best outcomes for pupils. We are committed to high standards and our academic outcomes consistently sit well above national expectations and expectations in the Royal Borough of Kingston.
- You will have the opportunity to teach highly-engaged, well-behaved children who love to learn and take great pride in their school. Our broad, balanced curriculum is enriched by intentional planning that nurtures reflection, curiosity, and connection, utilising unique spaces such as our newly developed forest school area.

Inclusion is paramount, and we provide tailored support to ensure every child reaches their full potential within a nurturing, inspiring and secure environment. We are looking for an enthusiastic and highly-motivated primary class teacher who is an excellent practitioner with strong pedagogical knowledge. The ideal candidate will be passionate about education, open to professional growth, and a strong communicator who works well as part of a team.

At our heart is a passion to put children first, we deliver exceptional education with a relentless drive for academic excellence, shared moral purpose and Christian values combined with lots of fun and joy. We believe that happy schools are also high-achieving, successful schools.

We strive for partnerships between children, families, staff and the wider community to create exceptional outcomes.

We warmly invite you to apply to Malden Parochial and would welcome you to visit our website and our school to learn more about us.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Offers of employment will be subject to satisfactory references, online searches and Disclosure and Barring Service clearance.

Please see the following links to our Safeguarding and Child Protection policy and Recruitment and Selection policy.
